

CCW Library News

The library is at its busiest during the Winter months and we've been so delighted that so many books have been taken out in Term 2.

In this edition of Library News, we hope to inspire you to add books to your list for Father Christmas. Spend some time away from the TV and enjoy reading a book or two this holiday.

Rudyard Kipling's astonishing characters come to life in this stunning new edition of a beloved classic.

This gripping adventure story will keep readers turning the pages until the satisfying conclusion.

Jack Mattingly is a genius. He has an IQ of 170. He speaks fluent Mandarin and Latin. And he can calculate the square root of 1,673,549 in his head.

Hilarious and full of heart. An extraordinary novel for those curious readers.

Secrets, lies and home truths will out, frying pans burnt, and arguments will flare up in a story full of humour, honesty and minor household emergencies.

A wonderful book about finding one's own voice – Will appeal to Jacqueline Wilson and Cath Cassidy fans.

A supernatural, spine-tingling, powerful, action packed read! A must for Alex Rider fans

This gentle book explores loss in its many forms, and gives insight into the thought process of an autistic girl, as she tries to make sense of the world around her. This book will particularly appeal to fans of Wonder by P J Palacio.....

If you get a chance over the holidays – pop to the cinema to see this powerful, emotional uplifting film based on the book.

Or if you are a Year 7 pupil and wanted to know a little more about Charles Dickens before looking at his work; perhaps a visit to see The Man Who Invented Christmas?
