

CCW Library News

Now that the days are becoming shorter and the evenings are drawing in, what better way to spend your evening curled up with a good book?!

In this edition of Library News, we look at new books, classic ghost stories and tales that go BUMP in the night! Ready for some Halloween treats....

The English department's top reads: Goth Girl and the Sinister Symphony or Woman in Black

Mrs Davies recommends Tom Gates, and The Goosebumps Books-we have lots to choose from in the library.

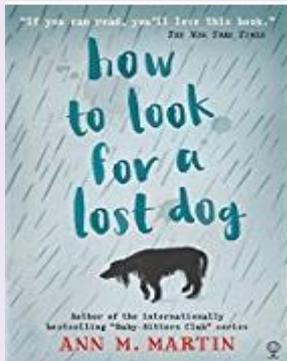

Discover Libraries Week 9-14th October

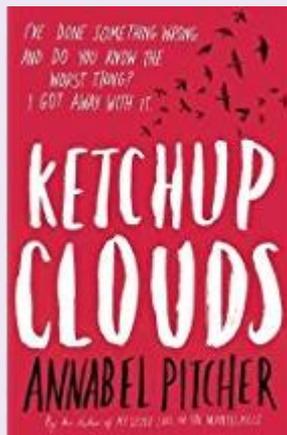

The annual showcase of all the creative, innovative and diverse activities that our library has to offer. Browse the web site to find out more

<http://www.librariesweek.org.uk/>

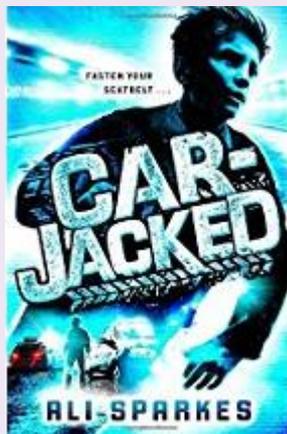

Read on for some recommendations from our pupils....

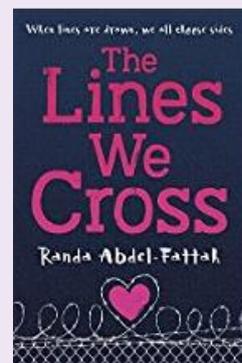

A bittersweet tale of an autistic girl and her dog.

Zoe Collins has a dark and terrible secret that she dares to confess to no one. But one day she hears of a criminal on death row who knows all about secrets. And lies. And betrayal. Desperate to confide in someone Zoe picks up a pen.

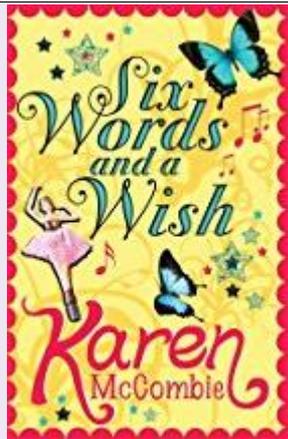

Jack Mattingly is a genius. He has an IQ of 170. He speaks fluent Mandarin and Latin. And he can calculate the square root of 1,673,549 in his head.

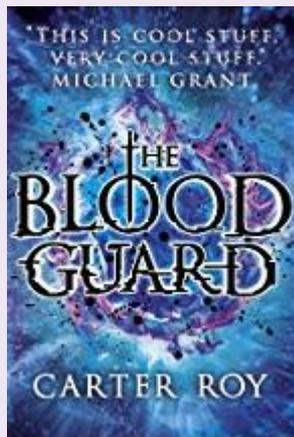

A Boy. A Girl. Two families. One great divide.

Michael is drawn to his new classmate Mina, but they're on opposite sides of an issue that's tearing their town apart.

My dad's a clown (literally). My mum runs a dippy café for kids called Yummy Fun. My dog is old, round, and a bit mad. My house is full of Christmas decorations (it's July). And my sister Gracie has gone.

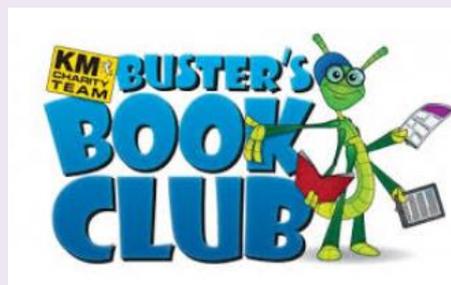

Ronan Truelove has just discovered the existence of the blood guard. An ancient order of knights sworn to protect the thirty six pure. It's a lot for an ordinary kid to deal with. But maybe Ronan's not so ordinary after all.....

Introducing Axelle Anderson:
Fashion's most stylish detective.

Year 7 start their Buster Books Challenge-how many hours will we be reading?

Radical Reading Winners-teachers and pupils

Enjoy your holidays-may they be full of happy hours of reading!